

Art, Activism, and Academia: Critical Gender Studies Perspectives on Intersectional Resistance

The CGS Program and the Nicholas Papadopoulos Endowed Lecture proudly present:

Intersectional Resistance in the University

Thursday, June 1st, 9-4pm

Cross-Cultural Center, Comunidad Room

(Food will be served)

- 9:00am Breakfast
- 9:30am Workshop on ending the Criminalization of Survivors of Domestic & Sexual Violence with CGS Alumna and Survived and Punished co-founder, Hyejin Shim
- 10:30am CGS Graduate Student Roundtable on engaging with intersectional resistance as scholars and activists
- 12:30pm Lunch
- 1:00pm CGS Honors Students Presentations
- 2:00pm Doing Digital Wrongly: Alternative Sonic Registers of Black Girlhood

The Critical Gender Studies program invites you to two days of events centering the importance of critical gender studies perspectives in times of increasing political repression, attacks on marginalized communities and an accelerated neoliberal restructuring of the university.

Showcasing the work of CGS students, alumni, affiliates and friends, we are celebrating the brand new CGS Graduate Specialization, two years of monthly community events at the Digital Gym in North Park and our sixth year of hosting the Nicholas Papadopoulos Endowed Lecture in Gay & Lesbian Studies.

Come learn, organize and celebrate with us and show your support for the CGS community.

In addition to core funding from the Nicholas Papadopoulos Endowment and the Critical Gender Studies Program, this event is generously co-sponsored by the Black Studies Project, the Anthropology Department, Ethnic Studies Department, History Department, Literature Department, Theatre and Dance Department, Urban Studies and Planning Program, the UC Consortium for Black Studies in California and by a Climate Grant from the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion. Any views or opinions expressed in this program are solely those of the speaker(s) and/or organizer(s) and do not necessarily represent those of the Office of the Vice Chancellor.
